Office Hours/Location: Thursdays 1:00 – 2:00 pm and by appointment
HPER-N 255

My door is usually open. I look forward to having you drop by to ask questions related to the course, talk about your future goals/plans, or just talk story.

Course Description:

This course is designed to engage you in the process of learning how to qualitatively analyze the movements of the human body and to discover underlying principles. As a result of integrating information from musculoskeletal anatomy and neuromuscular physiology you will be better able to help your students/clients perform with optimum safety, effectiveness, and efficiency.

Pre- or co-requisites:

Prerequisites: "C-" or better in BIOL 2325.

Required Materials:

Floyd, R.T. Manual of Structural Kinesiology, McCraw-Hill 22nd Ed., 2024.

Student Learning Outcomes:

By the end of this course, you will be able to:

1. Analyze complex movements through knowledge of the musculoskeletal system,
2. Identify structural units that carry out the functions of the muscle and connective tissue,
3. Identify the main structures of the joints of the body; namely tendons, ligament, and articular cartilage,
4. Analyze the mechanism of injury and structures injured in common human performance activities.

Teaching and Learning Methods:

This class will consist of a combination of lectures, small and large group discussions/activities, and case studies as we learn together in-person in a classroom-based setting.

Assignments:

Evaluation	Weighting	Date(s)
Case Studies (5)	100 points (20%)	Ongoing
Quizzes (10)	100 points (20%)	Ongoing
Group Project	75 points (15%)	TBD
Exam #1	100 points (20%)	Thursday Oct 5th or Thursday Oct 9th
Exam #2 (Final Exam)	125 points (25%)	Tuesday December 12th, 10:30 AM - 12:30 PM

Missed Exams/Assignments:

Absolutely NO late case studies, exams, or assignments will be accepted. You will receive "0" points for any missed Case Study, exam, quiz and/or assignment. If extenuating circumstances prevent you from taking a test and/or Case Study, or turning in an assignment during the scheduled time, you need to make arrangements with me PRIOR TO the test or due date.

Grading Criteria:

A =93-100%	C =73-76%
A- =90-92%	C- =70-72%
B+ =87-89%	D+ =67-69%
B =83-86%	D =63-66%
B- =80-82%	D- =60-62%
C+ =77-79%	E =<60%

- Grades will be determined based on a percentage of total points earned. Grades at or above the .5 level will be rounded up; grades at or below .4 level will be rounded down.
- Course grades are non-negotiable. Your grade is based on points earned.
- You will NOT be given opportunities at the end of the semester to score additional points.
- To have this course satisfy KINES degree requirements you must earn at least a C- in the course.

Course Schedule:

Note: Our schedule is subject to revision based on the needs of our class; any updates will be made available for students through Canvas.

Course Policies:

Attendance & Punctuality:

- My expectation is that you are coming to class daily. Students are most successful in the course when they attend daily. We cover information in class that may not be covered in the posted PowerPoint slides. The course info is really exciting and can be used in your daily life (and is important for exams). I also value your thoughts, insights, and questions. The best class is one where we all attend regularly and one where we are all part of the team. (And, I will notice when you are gone and you may find an email from me checking up on you!)
 - Our course is designated by the University of Utah to be an in-person class. Except in cases of ADA accommodations or quarantining due to COVID-19 exposure or infection, you will be expected to attend class in person and complete assignments. Changes to this policy are up to the discretion of the instructor. Students who miss class are responsible for getting notes, making sure that any assignments due on that date are turned in prior to the beginning of class when possible, and/or making up missed coursework.

Canvas: It is your responsibility to check Canvas regularly as course notes, assignments, and announcements will be updated regularly. PowerPoint slides will be posted for each topic we cover in class.

Other information:

1. COVID-19 Campus Guidelines. Please refer to the University's COVID-19 Central website for the latest information and guidelines.

COVID-19 Central @ The U

801-213-2874

coronavirus.utah.edu

Please note that students in clinical programs should remain in close contact with their program director about the latest guidelines pertaining to COVID-19.

2. The Americans with Disabilities Act. The University of Utah seeks to provide equal access to its programs, services, and activities for people with disabilities. If you will need accommodations in this class, reasonable prior notice needs to be given to the Center for Disability & Access (CDA; <http://disability.utah.edu/>; 162 Olpin Union Building; 801-581-5020). CDA will work with you and the instructor to make arrangements for accommodations. All written information in this course can be made available in an alternative format with prior notification to the CDA.
3. Addressing Sexual Misconduct. Title IX makes it clear that violence and harassment based on sex and gender (which includes sexual orientation and gender identity/expression) is a Civil Rights offense subject to the same kinds of accountability and the same kinds of support applied to offenses against other protected categories such as race, national origin, color, religion, age, status as a person with a disability, veteran's status or genetic information. If you or someone you know has been harassed or assaulted, you are encouraged to report it to the Title IX Coordinator in the Office of Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action, 135 Park Building, 801-581-8365, or the Office of the Dean of Students, 270 Union Building, 801-581-7066. For support and confidential consultation, contact the Center for Student Wellness, 426 SSB, 801-581-7776. To report to the police, contact the Department of Public Safety, 801-585-2677(COPS).
4. The Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities. The code, which specifies student rights as well as conduct involving cheating, plagiarism, collusion, fraud, theft, etc., is provided at <http://regulations.utah.edu/academics/6-400.php>.
5. Wellness Statement. Personal concerns such as stress, anxiety, relationship difficulties, depression, cross-cultural differences, etc., can interfere with a student's ability to succeed and thrive at the University of Utah. For helpful resources contact the Center for Student Wellness, <http://wellness.utah.edu/>; 801-581-7776.

6. University Safety Statement. The University of Utah values the safety of all campus community members. To report suspicious activity or to request a courtesy escort, call campus police at 801-585-COPS (801-585-2677). You will receive important emergency alerts and safety messages regarding campus safety via text message. For more information regarding safety and to view available training resources, including helpful videos, visit safeu.utah.edu

7. Drop/Withdrawal Policies. Students may drop a course within the first two weeks of a given semester without any penalties. Students may officially withdraw (W) from a class or all classes after the drop deadline through the midpoint of a course. A "W" grade is recorded on the transcript and appropriate tuition/fees are assessed. The grade "W" is not used in calculating the student's GPA. For deadlines to withdraw from full-term, first, and second session classes, see the U's Academic Calendar.

8. Learners of English as an Additional/Second Language. If you are an English language learner, please be aware of several resources on campus that will support you with your language development and writing. These resources include: the Writing Center (<http://writingcenter.utah.edu/>); the Writing Program (<http://writing-program.utah.edu/>); the English Language Institute (<http://continue.utah.edu/eli/>). Please let me know if there is any additional support you would like to discuss for this class.

9. Lauren's Promise. The following statement discusses interpersonal violence that has occurred on our campus and resources available. It may evoke feelings of distress or past trauma by individuals who have experienced situations involving interpersonal violence. We wanted to acknowledge as well that this situation does not describe every victim's experience and certain communities may be at a higher risk for these experiences.

Lauren's Promise—I will listen and believe you if someone is threatening you.

If you are in urgent need of support, call 911 and/or the Utah crisis line at 800.273.8255.

If you are experiencing interpersonal violence, sexual assault, domestic violence, and/or stalking, please report it to me and I can connect you to resources. Here are additional sources of support and help:

Mandatory reporters are university employees, including students in paid leadership positions, who are required to report sexual misconduct to the Office of Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action per university regulations. Examples of mandatory reporters include:

- Professors and other faculty
- Administration and staff (non-mental health)
- Resident advisors
- Student employees
- Campus police or campus security officials
- Athletic coaches/assistants

Confidential resources are employees not required to report any identifying information regarding an incident of sexual violence to the university. Survivors of sexual misconduct can speak openly to confidential resources about their experiences without their names or extensive details about their experience being reported to the Title IX coordinator or law enforcement.

- University Counseling Center:
- University Hospitals Chaplin
- Student Athlete Support Services
- Center for Student Wellness Victim Advocates
- Women's Resource Center

10. Diverse Supports for Students. Your success at the University of Utah is important to all of us here! If you feel like you need extra support in academics, overcoming personal difficulties, or finding community, the U is here for you.

Student Support Services (TRIO)

TRIO federal programs are targeted to serve and assist low-income individuals, first-generation college students, and individuals with disabilities.

Student Support Services (SSS) is a TRIO program for current or incoming undergraduate university students who are seeking their first bachelor's degree and need academic assistance and other services to be successful at the University of Utah.

Undocumented Students

Immigration is a complex phenomenon with broad impact—those who are directly affected by it, as well as those who are indirectly affected by their relationships with family members, friends, and loved ones. If your immigration status presents obstacles that prevent you from engaging in specific activities or fulfilling specific course criteria, confidential arrangements may be requested from the Dream Center.

Arrangements with the Dream Center will not jeopardize your student status, your financial aid, or any other part of your residence. The Dream Center offers a wide range of resources to support undocumented students (with and without DACA) as well as students from mixed-status families.

Inclusivity at the U

The Office for Inclusive Excellence is here to engage, support, and advance an environment fostering the values of respect, diversity, equity, inclusivity, and academic excellence for students in our increasingly global campus community. They also handle reports of bias in the classroom as outlined below:

Bias or hate incidents consist of speech, conduct, or some other form of expression or action that is motivated wholly or in part by prejudice or bias whose impact discriminates, demeans, embarrasses, assigns stereotypes, harasses, or excludes individuals because of their race, color, ethnicity, national origin, language, sex, size, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, disability, age, or religion.
