

Global LEAP Korea

Connect with a global community!

People around the world are seemingly more closely connected making it important to consider issues of global concern. This course talks about Korean pop culture, economics, and the history of Korea. We will also talk about the history of Korean immigration to America.

By taking this course you will have the opportunity to:

- Gain intercultural communication skills and global understanding.
- Increase self-awareness and the ability to view issues from multiple perspectives.
- Have the opportunity to study abroad
- Gain a global perspective on current issues

Fall Semester – Study at Main Campus in Salt Lake City. Work closely with faculty and peer advisors within a small cohort of fellow freshmen and have an active role in a class discussion. This course requires additional information for registration by completing the online form.

Spring Semester – Students will have the opportunity to take classes at the U Asia Campus in Songdo, South Korea (with application acceptance) in Spring `24 or a future semester. Students will enjoy small class sizes, participate in social and service activities with their cohort, and have an early international experience in one of the safest countries on the planet.
